

EMPLOYMENT

AUG 2013
- PRESENT

BowStern Marketing Communications - Team Lead; Web & Graphic Designer

In the past four years of my career at BowStern, I've grown immensely as a designer and an employee. I was hired as a web designer, but quickly expanded my role to assist the design team. It started small - social graphics, eblast designs, and cover photos. But it morphed into everything, including branding and traditional media. In the past year, I've been focusing mostly on front-end web development and user interface design. I've also stepped into the role as team lead - acting as the liason between the design team and the account management team at BowStern. Check out our work at BowStern.com.

- AUG 2013

Homes.com - Web Specialist; Client Relations

My time at Homes.com was spent assisting real estate agents in setting up and editing their listings sites. While it was admittedly not super glamorous, I learned a lot about managing clients and working with Content Management Systems.

EDUCATION

2007-2011

RELEVANT SKILLS

Proficient in Adobe Suite: Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Some After Effects; strong knowledge of HTML & CSS, Bootstrap, and working knowledge of PHP, Javascript and JQuery. I'm also an award winning baker (I started a monthly Bake-Off at my current job and have won no less than 5 times thank you very much), and I've recently opened an enamel pin business with a friend, which you can see here: ShopWeirdPlanet.com.
